

50's Puppet Show

Name: _____

| CATEGORY | 10 | 8-9 | 6-7 | 5 |
|--|---|---|---|---|
| Puppet Construction and Character | Puppets were original, creative, and constructed well. Puppeteers stayed in character throughout the performance. | Puppets were original and constructed well. Puppeteers stayed in character through almost all of the performance. | Puppets were constructed fairly well. Puppeteers tried to stay in character through some of the performance. | Puppets were not constructed well. Puppeteers acted silly or showed off. |
| Group Collaboration | Used time well during each class period. Focused on getting the project done. The group worked well together with all members contributing significant amounts of quality work. | Used time well during each class period. Usually focused on getting the project done. The group generally worked well together with all members contributing some quality work. | Used some of the time well during each class period. The group lacked focus at times. The group worked fairly well together with all members contributing some work. | Did not use class time to focus on the project and/or often distracted others. The group often did not work well together and the show appeared to be the work of only a few students in the group. |
| Accuracy-Creativity of Story | 15 facts about historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play was creative and really held the audience's interest. | 12-14 facts about the historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play was creative and held the audience's interest most of the time. | 9-11 facts about the historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play had several creative elements, but often did not hold the audience's interest. | Less than 9 facts about historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play needed more creative elements. |
| Voice Projection | Voices of puppeteers were always audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were usually audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were sometimes audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were rarely audible to people sitting in the back. |

50's Puppet Show

Name: _____

| CATEGORY | 10 | 8-9 | 6-7 | 5 |
|--|---|---|---|---|
| Puppet Construction and Character | Puppets were original, creative, and constructed well. Puppeteers stayed in character throughout the performance. | Puppets were original and constructed well. Puppeteers stayed in character through almost all of the performance. | Puppets were constructed fairly well. Puppeteers tried to stay in character through some of the performance. | Puppets were not constructed well. Puppeteers acted silly or showed off. |
| Group Collaboration | Used time well during each class period. Focused on getting the project done. The group worked well together with all members contributing significant amounts of quality work. | Used time well during each class period. Usually focused on getting the project done. The group generally worked well together with all members contributing some quality work. | Used some of the time well during each class period. The group lacked focus at times. The group worked fairly well together with all members contributing some work. | Did not use class time to focus on the project and/or often distracted others. The group often did not work well together and the show appeared to be the work of only a few students in the group. |
| Accuracy-Creativity of Story | 15 facts about historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play was creative and really held the audience's interest. | 12-14 facts about the historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play was creative and held the audience's interest most of the time. | 9-11 facts about the historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play had several creative elements, but often did not hold the audience's interest. | Less than 9 facts about historical events and musicians were included and were accurate. Play needed more creative elements. |
| Voice Projection | Voices of puppeteers were always audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were usually audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were sometimes audible to people sitting in the back. | Voices of puppeteers were rarely audible to people sitting in the back. |

Total Points: ____ / 40

Total Points: ____ / 40